

COLLEGE OF ARTS, SCIENCES AND SOCIAL WORK (CASSW)

In complete alignment with the University's thrust of creating a "distinctively strong Christian university integrating faith, character, and service in building up and enhancing the quality of life," the college provides integral and holistic development of the individuals to be fully equipped as responsible, informed, and active participants in the local, national, and global affairs in realization of the college's aim to provide an education that facilitates the integration and liberation of persons, enabling them to effect changes in themselves, their environment, and their society in general.

As an academic service unit for general course requirements, it offers vast opportunities where students gain knowledge, improve skills, and develop Christian values in preparation for a specialized area of learning and prospective career in English, Broadcasting, Political Science, Biology, Mathematics, Psychology, Philosophy, and Social Work.

VISION

A liberal arts education is committed to the development of the total person to enable him to realize fullness in human life.

MISSION

The College of Arts, Sciences, and Social Work, through its highly competent faculty and staff, is committed to excellence in providing Christian liberal education. Education in the CASSW is geared towards the preparation of students for their various professions as responsible leaders and useful members of society, nurtured with the Christian values of faith, character, and service.
